WRITE TOGETHER HUB

Novel Planning Sheet

Plan your whole novel in one place — premise, structure, characters, and chapters.

The Big Picture

Working title

Genre / subgenre

Target audience

Comparable titles (“it’s like X meets Y”)

Point of view & tense

Estimated word count

Premise & Theme

Logline (one sentence: character + goal + stakes)

One-paragraph premise

Central theme or question the story explores

Story Structure — Key Beats

Sketch what happens at each turning point. Leave blanks you haven't figured out yet.

Hook / opening image — Where and how we meet the story

Inciting incident — The event that disrupts normal life

Plot Point 1 (end of Act 1) — The protagonist commits to the journey

Rising action / complications — Escalating obstacles

Midpoint — A shift, revelation, or point of no return

Plot Point 2 / crisis — The lowest moment or hardest choice

Climax — The final confrontation

Resolution / final image — The new normal

Character Arcs

Protagonist

Name

External goal (what they want)

Internal need (what they truly need)

Motivation (why)

Flaw or wound

Arc: who they are at the start → at the end

Antagonist / Opposition

Name

Goal (what they want)

Why they oppose the protagonist

What makes them formidable

Key Supporting Characters

Name	Role in story	What they want	Their arc

Chapter Summaries

One line per chapter — enough to see the shape of the book.

Ch.	Working title	What happens	POV
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12

Subplots & threads to track